From Saturday March 23. to Tuesday March 26. 1745.

Petersbourg, February 26.

YEsterday about Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, Lord Tyrawley, his Britannick Majesty's Ambassadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, set out from hence in order to return to England.

Naples, March 2. On the 24th past the Duke Barretta, Agent Victualler of the Spanish Army, received Orders from M. de Gages, not to send, as usual, the Forage for the said Army to Civita Vecchia, but to direct the Oats and Corn to Ancona. The Train of Artillery which the King of Naples is to furnish to M. de Gages's Army, is getting ready with the utmost Expedition. The Neapolitan Troops which the King sends to reinforce the said Army, consisting, as is said, of 15 Battalions and nine Squadrons, are in March in four Columns, the first proceeds by Villetri, the second by St. Germano and Valmonte, the third by Rieti, and the fourth by Aquila. On the 27th past M. de Montalegre, Secretary of State, was taken ill of a Fever.

Florence, March 9. Three Couriers from Spain have within these few Days passed by in their Way to M. de Gages, who it is supposed were charged with the final Instructions to him: Since their Arrival at the Spanish Camp, M. de Gages has given fresh Orders to assemble his Troops, and caused some Piquets to advance to Foligno. By Advice just received, the whole Army was in Motion with 30 Pieces of Cannon in two Columns, one was to march by the Route of Foligno, and the other by Perugia. It has been publickly said at Viterbo, that the last Courier from Spain brought Orders to M. de Gages to march directly towards Prince Lobcowitz's Army, and to attack the Austrians at all Events; but an Opinion still prevails that they have a Design on Tuscany. Letters from Naples bring an Account, that the King of Naples will not move from thence himself, but that he will send 15 Battalions to reinforce M. de Gages, great Part of which by the last Accounts was already in March.

Bern, March 20, N. S. M. de Ravoy, the French Governor of Constance, is carrying off and sending into Alsace, all the Artillery and Ammunition in that Arsenal, Part of which belong'd to the Queen of Hungary, and Part to the Town. He has also published an Ordonnance, forbidding the Inhabitants to remove the least of their Effects on Pain of Death.

Berlin, March 23, N. S. His Prussian Majesty arrived upon the 17th of this Month at Breslau. The Warlike Preparations are continued here with great Diligence. Seven hundred and twenty six Horses, and 448 Men belonging to the Train, are expected here this Week, in order to conduct the Artillery and several Carriages full of Ammunition into Silesia.

Berlin, March 27, N. S. It is said that the Reigning Prince of Dessau will return here in a short Time, to take upon him the Command of a Body of Troops which is to be assembled in this Neighbourhood; and that it is in this View that the Regiments which are in Garrison here, have Orders to hold themselves in Readiness to march about the 8th of next Month; but as yet we are ignorant of their Destination. The Artillery is not yet set forward; but the Horses ordered for that Service are arriving: Some Boats of this Place, and several belonging to Magdebourg, are, it is said, stop'd and impress'd, in order to their transporting some Part of it by Water to the Oder.

Hambourg, March 23. It is said that 40,000 Recruits have been raised since the Campaign in Bohemia to compleat the Prussian Army. A Train of Artillery, and other Ammunitions of War, are ordered for Silesia as soon as the Oder shall be navigable. We hear from Petersbourg, that the Russian Fleet will put to Sea this Spring, and that the Gallies are likewise to be equipped.

Hambourg, March 30. An English Vessel called the Recovery, of about 100 Tons, laden with Butter, Tallow, some wrought Iron, and two Bales of Woollen Goods, was taken, in her Passage from Newcastle to London, by a Privateer from Calais, and has been since retaken at Sea by two Coal Ships, bound to Hambourg, and they brought her in here the Day before Yesterday; they found on board six Frenchmen and a Boy, but Yesterday Morning one of the Frenchmen made his Escape while the Men were busy in delivering their Coals.

The ſaid Veſſel was put into the proviſional Poſſeſſion of Capt. Osborne, of his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Shoreham, which lately arrived in this River, as Convoy, together with the Gibraltar, to the Trade from Hull. The King of Poland's Miniſter at the Court of Vienna, Count Bunaw, having obtained Leave to abſent himſelf ſome Months for the Recovery of his Health, his Poliſh Majeſty has appointed M. de Gerſdorff, his Miniſter Plenipotentiary at the Court of Vienna, during the Abſence of Count Bunaw. By the Deaths of the Lieutenant Generals Meſſieurs de Marche and de Grumkaw, in the Saxon Service, the Governments of the Fortreſs of Pleiſſenbourg at Leipſick, and of Sonnenſtein at Pirna, are become vacant. The King of Pruſſia who arrived at Breſlau the 17th, was preparing to ſet out for Neiſs. His Majeſty has made a Promotion of General Officers.

Mentz, March 24, N. S. The French having threatned to enter into the Rhinegow and pillage all that Country if the three Chiefs of the Peaſants, who had fired upon their Boats were not deliver'd up to them, this brought on a Negociation which ended in a Convention that the 15 Peaſants, who had been taken up by the Elector's Order ſhould be ſent to the French Camp, under Condition that they ſhould be pardon'd, and ſent back to the Elector, which has been executed accordingly. Marſhal Maillebois's Quarters are now at Ober-Urſel, and Yeſterday Morning General Lowendal marched to Epſtein, where he is with the Left of the French Army, ſo that there is ſtill Five or Six French Leagues between their Line and the Lahne, the Marſhal has demanded Leave to enter into Konigſtein, and threatens to attack it unleſs it be put into his Hands. A Conference has been held hereupon, but the Reſult of it is not yet made publick.

Mentz, March 27, N. S. M. de Agion, who is here on the Part of M. de Maillebois, (in the Abſence of M. de Blondel the French Miniſter) has been at Court this Afternoon, and demanded peremptorily, that the Fortreſs of Konigſtein ſhould be immediately delivered up to the French, threatning, in caſe of Refuſal, that they will take it by Force, declare War openly againſt the Elector, put his Country under Contributions, and blocade the Town of Mentz in Form. To this the Elector has taken the Reſolution to declare, that he will not deliver up his Fortreſs, but abide the laſt Extremity, appealing to the Empire, and to the Neutrality ſtipulated for his Country, which he has hitherto religiouſly obſerved. The French have begun to ſet up a Bridge of Boats below this Town at Biberich, ſo that we are blocaded on all Sides, and in a kind of Priſon at large in this Town.

Hague, April 2, N. S. The Prince of Orange and the Princeſs Royal ſet out this Morning for their uſual Reſidence in Friſeland. The Prince of Waldeck is ſtill here, but is upon the Point of his Departure for Flanders, whither Sir John Ligonier ſet out this Morning. Monſieur Elſacher, the Palatin Reſident here, has moved the Miniſters of this Republick in his Maſter's Behalf, with reſpect to obtaining a leſs rigorous Treatment of his Eſtates at the Hands of the Queen's Troops, alledging in Support of this Sollicitation, that the Elector is reſolved not to treſpaſs the Rules of a perfect Neutrality. And it is further reported here, that the Orders and Preparations for putting the Palatin Troops, which are in the Dutchy of Juliers, into a Condition to take the Field, have been unexpectedly countermanded and ſuſpended.
